

First Congregational Church UCC

"No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here!"

A glorious thank you to Suzy and Hal Lobaugh for the gift of their entire Christmas decoration collection. This includes two large trees and about 20 bins of beautiful decor. We will certainly have a new look in the Church next Advent and Christmas.

I am not sure, but am thinking last week's cold weather might have been because we were receiving all the beautiful decorations.

Thanks again and God Bless you both.

MISSIONS NEWS

June's mission outreach emphasis is the denomination's "Strengthen the Church". Donations will help seed plant new churches, support creative new ministries directed to youth and young adults, and fund new projects/programs offering spiritual enrichment and engagement with today's challenging issues. Checks can be made to the church, with the memo line of, "Strengthen the Church". Thanks to your generous contributions in May, $470 is being sent to support church "Hospitality" ministries assisting registered asylum seekers released by ICE in the Phoenix area.

Thank you for remembering that we have been blessed to be a blessing. (Genesis 12:2) Questions and/or comments can be directed to any of our Mission Outreach team; Becky and Bill Bryant, Staci Robbins, Patty Gard, or Gary Gard (chairperson). New members to our team are always welcome.

Just a reminder - on the 3rd Wednesday of each month, volunteers from our church family provide a hot meal for women and children staying at the Prescott Area Shelter Services facility (PASS). June 19 next month. There is a volunteer sign-up sheet in Perkins Hall. Questions can be directed to our PASS meal coordinator, Patty Gard. Anyone from our Mission Outreach team would be glad to address any of your comments or questions. Thank you for remembering that we have been blessed to be a blessing. (Genesis 12:2)

Education Report, April 2019 Marti Garrison, presented to Cabinet April 24

In March and April I focused on Lent by changing the display on the table in Perkins Hall and contributing to the Caller thoughts on Lent for both children and adults. I ordered Lenten reflections booklets from UCC resources and set them out for people to take. All but one of 12 were picked up, with some positive feedback. I also displayed books on Lent from our library. The children's Lenten series were posted on both Perkins and downstairs bulletin boards and I gave the kindergarten teachers some Lenten materials for the children's projects. The children's times are going quite well. We have three dedicated and energetic teachers.

For Easter I changed the display to reflect the season: the table all in white. After May 24, the bulletin board will reflect educational ideas, plus a display of books available in our library. Check it all out!

On April 17, I led a Taize service. About 20 people came for the service and about 12 for the soup supper before. Ann Flanagan sang beautifully during our time of reflection and prayer.

Another event I am planning with Ronda Hatfield and Carol Dosse is a women's tea on June 8, at Ronda and Hal's home. A sign-up sheet will be in Perkins Hall starting May 5.

An event I would like to see happen in early fall is called The Human Library. "The Human Library

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Human Library is an international organization and movement that first started in Copenhagen, Denmark in 2000. It aims to address people's prejudices by helping them to talk to those they would not normally meet. The organization uses a library analogy of lending people rather than books. These people have "experienced prejudice, social exclusion or stigma," and participants can ask them questions so as to "learn about the other person and also challenge their own prejudices." The Human Library Organization is active in over 80 countries, in which there are a few permanent Human Libraries but most happen as events."

I was inspired by our race relations Town Hall when I heard people's stories and saw how important it is for all of us to be seen and heard. Our unique stories are worth sharing and hearing.

By "lending people" it means that the people telling their stories are like living books....books some of us might never read.

This will require advertising and a lot of preparation. Any thoughts from readers are welcome. It will be an important follow-up of the Town Hall.

I will go through the questionnaires people turned in about what classes or activities they are interested in and see if some of those or new ones I have yet to think of fit the summer months.

Any suggestions, let me know!

One idea for a congregational gathering is picnicking and hiking on the Peavine Trail.

P.S. If anyone has read any of Barbara Brown Taylor's books and in particular her latest, Holy Envy, let's talk about a BBT series in the fall! She is fascinating and challenging and also very readable, even humorous!
