

SUNDAY WORSHIP 10:30 AM SUNDAY SCHOOL & NURSERY 10:30 AM

From the Pastor

The first Sunday of Lent on February 18 gathered 100 in worship with 19 children! The children collected our "souper bowl" offering and decided it should go to St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis. The offering total was $297.16. Thanks to the children!

As we continue our Lenten journey, Sunday's text is Mark 8:31-38. Jesus tells his disciples to deny themselves, take up their cross and follow him. Tough talk, but Mark's gospel pulls no punches when it comes to discipleship. The Dietrich Bonhoeffer quote about Christ calling us to come and die comes to mind. What would it mean for spoiled Americans to take up our cross? Many might have the view of the little boy in Sunday school class who answered the question about taking up one's cross by saying: "My mom says my dad is her cross to bear." We will wrestle with this command Sunday and find some modern applications. Don't worry, it's not all gloom! Brian and Thomas provide music: David is liturgist; JJ & Ziggy explain the cross.

Come one, Come all, to our FCC COFFEE HOUSE! Last Friday of every month - TODAY! February 23 - 4 to 6 pm - Perkins Hall - Serving: good conversation, light beverages and snacks, lots of games, music of all kinds, dancing if you want it, and any other creative ideas you can come up with. "When Black Female Preachers Speak - Seven Important Discussions with Black Female Theologians" A part of our decentering whiteness efforts (not to mention patriarchy)

The next gathering will be March 22 at noon in the church office conference room. Bring your own lunch / snack and drink.

When black female preachers speak, we should all listen. The insight and intention provided by black theologians illustrate their ability to bring the history of black culture and religious experience into the life of Christians and the liturgical life of the church. For centuries black mothers have passed on wisdom – in the white world, in the black community, and with men. This wisdom has illustrated how God reveals prophetic word and action for Christian living.

We have brought together some important themes coupled with visionary insights from Rev. Jacqui Lewis, Rev. Dr. Karen Georgia Thompson, Rev. Dr. Kelle Brown, Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglass, Rev. Traci Blackmon, Rev. Canon Stephanie Spellers, and Bishop Yvette Flunder.

SCAM ALERT! THE PASTOR WILL NEVER, NEVER, NEVER, NEVER, EVER ASK YOU FOR GIFT CARDS OR MONEY IN ANY FORM!!!!!!

PASS - PRESCOTT AREA SHELTER SERVICES

PASS, our local women's shelter, serves as a place for women and children experiencing homelessness. The third Wednesday of every month (March 20) our church provides dinner for the guests at the shelter. Meal items are brought to the church parking lot at 5:00 pm and then taken by one of our members to the shelter. Carolyn Christians has taken over this role from Patty Gard. We need new members to sign up to help each month. The sign-up sheet is in Perkins Hall.

FEBRUARY MISSION NEWS

MONTHLY FOCUS: Each month throughout the year, our Mission Outreach team identifies particular mission programs to support. Our emphasis for February is Prescott Area Shelter Services (PASS).

Prescott Area Shelter Services (PASS) provides shelter for local women and children in need. A donation of just $28 can mean a new chance for a guest in need, a chance to feel safe, a chance to feel supported, and a chance to start the process of getting back on their feet. Your $28 contribution gives shelter and all of PASS's support programs, including case management, to one guest for a night.

Other amounts to consider: $50 will supply the shelter with toilet paper for at least two months; $100 sponsors 10 days of shelter for one person (one day can change the life of a person); $400 will supply shelter to a full dorm of guests for a week, along with staff support, the resources and supplies needed, and a warm and safe environment; $500 will support a family for one month through PASS's Transitional Housing Program; and $1000 helps one family or two single women obtain permanent housing.

If you wish to contribute, please make your check payable to the church, with the memo of PASS. Mission donations which do not specify a particular project will be disbursed as determined by our Mission team members.

In January, due to your generous support, the Mission Outreach team distributed funds to the following organizations/projects: Yavapai Food Bank ($250), Ukraine Relief ($1,020), and the UCC Christmas Fund ($895).

As always, thank you for remembering that we are blessed to be a blessing (Genesis 12:2).

Mission Outreach Committee members for 2024 are Patty Gard, Carolyn Christians, Roxanne Matthews, Bill Bryant, and Becky Bryant, chairperson. If you would like to serve with us, or have any other outreach matters to discuss, please contact Becky at (928) 910-2820 or beckybryant2255@gmail.com.

ENNEAGRAM WORKSHOP COMING MAY 18

We did this workshop back in 2016. Participants enjoyed getting to know themselves better and understanding others better. An Enneagram instructor will be leading the workshop. There will be a fee for attending – scholarships will be available if needed.

From The Enneagram Institute:

What is the Enneagram?

Don Riso has defined the Enneagram as “a geometric figure that delineates the nine basic personality types of human nature and their complex interrelationships.” While the Enneagram suggests that there are nine basic personality types of human nature, there are, of course, many subtypes and variations within the nine fundamental categories. Nevertheless, the assertion of Enneagram theory is that these nine adequately map out the territory of “personality types.”

The Enneagram is also a symbol that maps out the ways in which the nine types are related to each other. This is the aspect of the Enneagram most people are familiar with because it offers them a framework for understanding themselves and everyone they deal with. As a psychospiritual typology, the Enneagram helps people to recognize and understand an overall pattern in human behavior. External behaviors, underlying attitudes, one’s characteristic sense of self, conscious and unconscious motivations, emotional reactions, defense mechanisms, object relations, what we pay attention to, our spiritual potentials and much more—are all parts of a complex pattern that forms each personality type. Therapists, business counselors, human resource directors, and spiritual seekers from around the world are all finding the Enneagram to be immensely useful for self-understanding and personal growth. Always remember however, that the Enneagram does not put you in a box; it shows you the box you are in and the way out!

What use is the Enneagram? How can it help me?

The Enneagram can be extremely useful to everyone as a source of self-knowledge because it acts as a kind of “mirror” to reveal features of our personality that normally are invisible to us. Most of the time, people function habitually, as if on “automatic pilot,” according to the pattern of their basic personality type. Usually this allows people to get along well enough in their lives, but when their normal routines break down or the stresses of their lives increase too much, their normal way of coping also tends to break down or become dysfunctional. Seeing clearly what our habitual patterns are—seeing what we are doing and why we are doing it, and at what cost to ourselves and others—holds the key to our liberation. By knowing your type correctly, you are able to see yourself—to “catch yourself in the act”—as you move throughout the day. With this increased self-awareness, you are also able to avoid reacting in negative and potentially dangerous ways.

Once real balance has been restored to the personality structure, the Enneagram can help us to orient ourselves to the higher spiritual and psychological qualities that each type has in abundance. Thus, at its highest, the Enneagram invites us to look deeply into the mystery of our true identity. It reveals that we are not our personality, but something more—a spiritual being who has lost contact with his or her true nature. Living out of this realization shifts completely how we see ourselves, others, and the world, bringing liberation, freedom, and joy. (See pages 27-48 in The Wisdom of the Enneagram or pages 11-17 of Understanding the Enneagram (Revised Edition) for more about the psychological and spiritual context of the Enneagram.)

Holy and merciful God, in your presence we confess our failure to be what you created us to be. By your loving mercy, help us to live in your light and abide in your ways, for our own good and the sake of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 27:1)

David Pifer

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Believe the good news of the gospel – in Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

*Hymn: "O for a World"

New Century Hymnal #575

*Benediction (Prayer of St. Francis)

Pastor Jay

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; And where there is sadness, joy. O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console, to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

*Postlude: "Wondrous Love"

Brian and Thomas
