A Message From Pastor Jay

NEW COVID PROCEDURES UNTIL OMICRON WAVE ABATES:

WE ARE WEARING MASKS IN THE SANCTUARY & PERKINS HALL
AFTER WORSHIP REFRESHMENTS AND FINGER FOODS ARE SUSPENDED
SOCIAL DISTANCING IS ENCOURAGED

What did Jesus say to make the synagogue congregation so angry that they wanted to throw him off a cliff? (Luke 4:21-30) We will explain the answer Sunday and find it very relevant to our current social situation. Joyful Noise provides music. Elizabeth is liturgist. And JJ dramatizes the love chapter - 1 Corinthians 13.

It looks like the next few weeks will be our Omicron apex and then hopefully the virus spread will start to go down. Stay safe! Masks and vaccines are our defense!

EDUCATION MINISTRY

Our Needs:

Preserve each of our sense of sacred experience in and with church

Desire to contribute to church community

To be responsive to congregant's interests for fellowship, education, and spiritual growth

Work together as a team, to offer opportunities with dispersed leadership for programs

Caveats of Prescott UCC Education Ministry at this time:

Small church community

Increased social isolation due to virus variants

Aims of Education Ministry:

Utilize community resources and teachers
Offer programming in church and to community ex: at library,
Las Fuentes, Museums
Use the arts as a framework for exploring faith, Spirit and the Divine Presence in all

Survey to Prescott UCC Community:

The newly formed Education Ministry Team is seeking your input for programming ideas. Listed are ideas we've heard from others or are interested in ourselves. Please rank in order your priorities 1 = most interest. Add other interests for us to ponder.

Thank you. Alice Kring, Linda Mast and Lisa Barnes

Please rank your interests for Education Ministry and email /mail to church: fccprescott@gmail.com or 216 East Gurley Street, Prescott, AZ 86301

JANUARY MISSION NEWS

This month's Mission Outreach project is our local Prescott Community Cupboard [PCC]. Individuals and families receive nutritionally balanced bags of food packed by volunteers from various churches and organizations. We are grateful for our team members from First Congregational Church who faithfully serve for appointed dates throughout the year. Angela Imbierowicz is our team captain, assisted by Lee Danaher. If you are interested in volunteering as a packer, please contact either Angela [708 712 1448] or Lee [602 509 4893] both of whom also serve on the PCC board of directors. Donation checks can be made payable to the church, with the memo, PCC. Thank you for remembering that we have been blessed to be a blessing (Genesis 12:2).

Call to Worship

Elizabeth Spence

L: Love one another,

All: For the one who loves has fulfilled the law.

L: Love one another,

All: For all the commandments are fulfilled, if we love God and neighbor.

L: Love one another, for this is the law of Christ.

All: Love does no wrong to a neighbor, L: Therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

All: Come, worship Christ, who calls us to love one another!

Anthem: "God Has Chosen Me" by Bernadette Farrell

Prayers of the People & The Lord's Prayer (use trespasses)

Your love is patient; we give you thanks for all those who have been patient with us and have taught and cared for us; and we pray for the patience to love others as you have loved us.

Your love is kind; give us the courage to be kind to others and to serve those with patience who are so often unkind, rude, difficult to love, or our enemies. They are your children and our sisters and brothers and they were made in your image.

Your love is not pompous; give us insight to speak the truth in love and for the sake of your kingdom and not out of a need to appear clever or right and in all our relationships give us the wisdom to listen far more than we speak.

Your love does not seek its own interests; we thank you and pray for those who serve the poor and those in need, who give tirelessly of themselves and who have much to do and little time for themselves.

Your love is not quick-tempered; we pray for those who are angry and for the violent and their victims; for children who fear, elders who are abused, and people trapped in relationships that injure and harm.

Your love bears all things; we remember before you those with heavy burdens, many cares, much stress, and too little comfort and help. Open our eyes to those around us and their needs and give us the wisdom to offer help without any prying or sense of superiority.

Your love never fails; even death does not trespass on the breadth and depth of your love. We thank you for those we have loved in this life and who now dwell in the peace and joy of your presence and let your comfort settle on those who are bereaved or who are lonely this day. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Offering of Ourselves and our Gifts

Prayer of Dedication

Elizabeth Spence

Loving God, we have been blessed with so much through your goodness. As we bring our gifts in gratitude this morning, you remind us that it doesn't matter what we have in our lives, if we do not have love, we have nothing. Help us to share your love with others. Amen.
