JUNE MISSION NEWS

JUNE MISSION PROJECT

Our June outreach emphasis will help fund two programs: our denomination's Strengthen the Church (STC) offering and the Yavapai Food

Bank (YFB).

Strengthen the Church (STC) is an annual UCC special offering with donations supporting new church development, creative ministries directed to youth and young adults, spiritual development ministries, and misc. projects addressing today's challenging issues.

The Yavapai Food Bank (YFB) provides food boxes for approximately 400 families weekly. Additionally, donations support "Start Right," a program to assist impoverished families needing assistance with back-to-school supplies and backpacks for K-12 children and youth.

If you would like to donate to either project, please make your check payable to the church, with the memo of STC or YFB. Mission donations which do not specify a particular project will be disbursed as determined by our Mission team members.

To date in 2022, mission disbursements have been made to: Prescott Community Cupboard ($545); Prescott Area Shelter Services ($755); Prescott Area Habitat for Humanity ($350); and UCC's One Great Hour of Sharing ($335).

Our special collection for the Southwest Conference's Ukraine Humanitarian Relief fund collected $3,735 (thank you for your generosity!) and a check was recently sent to help aid the struggling people of Ukraine.

May's mission focus was Frontera de Christo and will be disbursed and reported shortly.

As always, thank you for remembering that we are blessed to be a blessing (Genesis 12:2).

Mission Outreach Committee members are Gary & Patty Gard, Carolyn Christians, and Becky Bryant, chairperson. If you would like to serve with us, or have any other outreach matters to discuss, please contact Becky at (928) 910-2820 or beckybryant2255@gmail.com.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Those who are able may stand*

GATHERING TO WORSHIP GOD

Holy God, like a rushing wind your Spirit moved upon the first disciples on the day of Pentecost, and like a purifying fire your Spirit seared their hearts and minds with the message of salvation.

Send your Spirit upon your church in this time and place, stir up our courage, and rouse us for prophetic witness, that we may join with them to proclaim to the world your mighty deeds of power in Jesus Christ. Amen.

L: Jesus said, "I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, he abides with you, and he will be in you." (John 14)☞

P: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful people, and kindle in us the fire of your love.

L: May we worship God in spirit and in truth!

Litany for Pentecost

Tom Macy

L: Come, Spark of justice: enliven our passion for those who are imprisoned behind bars and fears;

P: those held captive by prejudices and poverty.

L: Come, Shelter for life: calm us when our worries toss and turn us in the night;

P: comfort us when hurtful words silence all around us.

L: Come, Advocate of the oppressed:

P: tear down the walls of silence which keep us from hearing our neighbors;

L: build bridges across the widening chasms of our rampant isolationism.

L: Come, Creator of mystery:

P: Open our eyes to the wonders of this life you have provided.

PROCLAIMING GOD'S WORD

Call to Reconciliation
Macy

Tom

In a cult of the individual, we forget we are created to be in community. In a world which tells us it is all up to us, we overlook Jesus' promise that we are not left alone, but gifted with the Spirit of hope, peace, and joy. Let us confess our lives to our God, who will make us one in grace and wonder. Let us join together, as we pray saying,

Unison Prayer for Forgiveness

Tom

Macy

Spirit of life, we confess that our fears drive us into the shadowed places of our lives. We pull the shutters of sin tight, to close out the light of your love. We slide the deadbolt crafted out of our doubts, turn the key to lock us away from your searching grace. We fall silent as we hear the footfalls of your hope just outside the door of our hearts. But you will not remain at arm's length from us, Spirit of cleansing. You rush in to sweep away our worries, replacing them with wonder. You dance in our cold hearts until they ignite in love for everyone around us. You offer oldsters visions of hope, and youngsters dreams of peace for a broken world. May we be as faithful in our believing, and in our living, as was Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 103:8-14)

Tom

Macy

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. God will not always accuse, nor will God keep anger forever. God does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is God's steadfast love toward those who fear God; as far as the east is from the west, so far God removes our transgressions from us. As a father has compassion for his children, so the Lord has compassion for those who fear God. For God knows how we were made; God remembers that we are dust.

The Church of Firsts

Since 1957, the United Church of Christ has been the church of firsts, weaving God's message of hope and extravagant welcome with action for justice and peace. Together, we live out our faith in ways that effect change in our communities. The UCC's many "firsts" mean that we have inherited a tradition of acting upon the demands of our faith. When we read in Galatians: "There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus"—a demand is made upon us. And so we were the first historically white denomination to ordain an African-American, the first to ordain a woman, the first to ordain an openly gay man, and the first Christian church to affirm the right of same-gender couples to marry. We were in the forefront of the anti-slavery movement and the Civil Rights movement. Our response to the demands of our faith is woven into the history of our country.
