
SUNDAY WORSHIP 10:30 AM SUNDAY SCHOOL & NURSERY 10:30 AM

From the Pastor

We gather Sunday to observe All Saints' Sunday. We remember those who passed away this past year. The text for Sunday is Matthew 23:1-12, and the title of the sermon is "Humble Saints." We will remember those saints who inspired us in our own lives. Joyful Noise provides music; Angela is liturgist; and Ziggy shares his saint experience with the children.

From the UCC website:

All Saints' Day is a very old observance of Christian Churches. In the Northern Hemisphere, it falls exactly midway between the Autumn Equinox and the Winter Solstice; the growing season has ended, the earth is turning away from the sun and entering a period of deep winter night. Losses of the past year—especially loved family and friends—are often felt keenly, as creation enters an empty, yet hopefully fallow, period," said the Rev. Sue Blain, minister of worship and gospel arts. "Congregations often say the names aloud of those who have died, acknowledging them with candle lighting or ringing of chimes, comforting one another in this loss with prayers and presence and reminders of our faithful God.

In addition to the opportunity to lament, Blain said the All Saints' service "also may assert most poignantly our resurrection faith, and celebrate the 'Communion of Saints.' This church tradition reminds us that it is the Holy Spirit that is building community among us—around the world, throughout time, and even through the passage of death itself.

Church Security

It has come to our attention that some people have concerns for their safety while at worship service here, on Sundays. Rest easy. Not all are aware but WE DO HAVE A SECURITY TEAM IN PLACE EVERY SUNDAY. Every Sunday we have a complete team consisting of highly trained current and retired law enforcement in addition to a retired emergency room medical care giver. Not only do we come to serve this church already trained but we continue to have current training sessions specific to responses in this particular church. Our intention is to carry out our function as low key as possible so as not to detract from your purpose of being here, to worship in peace, comfort and safety. (Melissa)

Thanks to Jean M. for copying the sand painting explanation from the wall in Perkins Hall-

THE SAND PAINTINGS

The Sand Paintings that you see here in Perkins Hall were executed by Russell E. Insley with the assistance of Douglas Auld. When Perkins Hall was added to the First Congregational Church in the mid 1950's many Church Members felt that recognition should be given to the original inhabitants of our area. Thus, the Sand Paintings were conceived as a decoration in the new facility to honor the Native Americans who lived in Northern Arizona. It was decided to tell the story of the beginning people.

WHERE THE TWO CAME TO THEIR FATHER (A Navajo Ceremonial)

This story is the beginning of The People. East, South, West, and North - - it goes everywhere, and it is full of good power. It starts when the Earth Mother, the Sky, the Sun and the Stars, the Winds and the Mountains could talk; They talked about the making of the Earth. The myth proceeds with the adventures of two grandsons of First Man and Woman. The figures in the ceremonial and painting represent Twelve Holy People - from left to right facing the stage - they are:

- | | |
|----------------|-----------------------|
| 1. The Sun | 5. Male Corn |
| 2. Talking God | 6. Corn - Beetle Girl |
| 3. Call God | 7. Pollen Boy |
| 4. Female Corn | 8. The Moon |

The remaining characters are not shown here, since they are depicted only by colors: yellow = Earth, blue = Sky, black = Darkness, white = Dawn and yellow = Sunlight.

The mural on the back wall of the stage might well be the mountain described in the myth, since it is descriptive of the magnificent Monument Valley country, beloved mystic land of the Navajo People.

In the Navajo way, the myths explain the world and life portraying all sorts of everyday behavior. Often, they point out a moral.

Mythology is the response of man's imagination to the uncharted areas of human experience. Since the Navajos have not rationalized their Mythology into Theology there are some inconsistencies among various versions of the origin myth and between the origin myth and other myths. Navajo rituals are composed of symbols, and each may differ in kind much as in phonetics, psychological concepts, and individual significations. The body of Navajo Mythology is to the Navajo what the Bible is to our Theologians.

The Navajo Religion tries to demonstrate through symbolism that there is much more to the dance, song, and sand painting than the primitiveness that meets the casual eye; that there is a religious system which for years enabled the Navajo to retain their identity in a rapidly changing world. To the Navajo, religion means ritual. Each ceremony has its myth. A more precise explanation than religion would perhaps be that the Navajo way provides the People not only with most profound theological mysteries but also with rules for everyday social behavior. It also protects them against diseases, hunger, and hardship. Indeed, it answers all their questions about every aspect of Life. The following Navajo poem expresses their feelings about the environment around them.

With Beauty before me I walk; with Beauty before me I walk.
With Beauty behind me I walk; with Beauty below me I walk.
With Beauty above me I walk; with Beauty all around me I walk.
I will be Happy forever; nothing will hinder me.

Russell Insley, the creator of the Sand Paintings had a great background in the study of Indian Lore, particularly that of the Navajo and Hopi. While many times the sand painter's work is his own creation, each individual item on it has its own meaning. In creating these paintings, Russell felt that his renditions had special meaning for the First Congregational Church of Prescott and its work. Some parts of the paintings pertain to goals to which we all strive such as harmony, purification, human frailty, generosity, protection, respect, and repentance. Every part of the sand paintings has a special meaning, the way the arms point for example, colors used, size of parts of the sand painting in relation to each other.

The Sand Paintings, then, are part of the history and heritage of the First Congregational Church of Prescott. The plastic overlays are designed to protect the Paintings from the elements and the various uses which we make of Perkins Hall. The Paintings were restored during 1990 by Robert Flack, a member of our congregation. The explanation given above is a compilation of information furnished by many of the older member of our Church. It is hoped that the above information will answer many of the questions which new members ask when they see the paintings for the first time.

NOVEMBER MISSION NEWS

MONTHLY FOCUS: Each month throughout the year, our mission outreach team identifies particular mission projects/programs to which we might choose to donate. As the holiday season approaches, this month our focus turns to the Coalition for Compassion and Justice (CCJ) AND Yavapai Food Bank.

CCJ has transitioned from primarily being an emergency shelter for those who are homeless to now helping clients find permanent affordable housing. CCJ has helped dozens of clients into mobile homes, cottage homes, apartments and lodge style facilities. Additionally, they work with other agencies to help provide rental assistance and programs for job opportunities.

The Yavapai Food Bank (YFB) provides food boxes for approximately 400 families weekly. Serving the area since 1992, Yavapai Food Bank is the largest food bank in our county, distributing tons of food each year to thousands of families and individuals living in poverty.

If you would like to donate to either project, please make your check payable to the church, with the memo of CCJ or YFB. Mission donations which do not specify a particular project will be disbursed as determined by our Mission team members. Recent mission disbursements have been made to: Prescott College's Freedom Education Fund ($350) plus UCC's Strengthen the Church ($350), Neighbors in Need ($375), and Sow the Seed ($250) funds.

As always, thank you for remembering that we are blessed to be a blessing (Genesis 12:2).

Mission Outreach Committee members are Patty Gard, Carolyn Christians, and Becky Bryant, chairperson. If you would like to serve with us, or have any other outreach matters to discuss, please contact Becky at (928) 910-2820 or beckybryant2255@gmail.com.

Sermon: "Humble Saints" Pastor Jay

Invitation to Communion and Remembrance of the Saints Pastor Jay

The invitation is simple: come and eat of the feast. Not a meal to nourish the body, but to feed the soul. We receive the bread and wine connected to the ages: to the saint of old who felt unworthy, □ to the seeker eager to know God, □ to the teenager who wonders what it's all about, to the child who eats with unburdened faith. Woven into this time, the hopes and tears of generations. There is great joy here. No one is turned away for God is the host! Open yourself to the nudging God. Tender, transforming God, you have invited us to gather at this table, to taste the feast, the same abundant promises offered to our ancestors in faith. For the One this meal remembers: for the life, ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

And we remember - We remember those who have died in the past year: Martie Dial, John Huff, and Jane Osborn. We celebrate their lives, even as we continue to grieve. We dedicate this offering plate in Marilyn Eby's memory, for her many years of faithful service in taking up the offering with husband Jay. And we remember all those who have gone before us. (bell tolls) God of all, send your Spirit to this place so that those gathered here, in this sacred moment, □ may know your presence. □ As we eat the bread and drink of the cup, make us one with the saints. This is the feast prepared for you.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper (Communion is open to all)

We come to the Lord's Table. All are invited to come forward down the middle aisle and return to your seat by the side aisle. We receive communion by intinction – please take a piece of bread and dip it into the cup and partake immediately.

God, we thank you for this place we have to worship you. We so easily take for granted the church building, the members who keep things clean and who keep things going, the lights and plumbing and all the other things it takes to hold our worship services each week. Help us to realize that while it may not be what we consider to be an exciting cause, it is one that is important to your cause. Bless this offering. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP SEASON IS HERE!

Let us enter stewardship time prayerfully and with grateful hearts. Loving God, thank you for this opportunity to participate in the on-going mission of this church, your church. Help me to remember that everything I have comes from you. Open my heart and hands with generosity as I promise my support. Use my talents and financial commitments to continue your work in this church and in the world. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY IS NOVEMBER 19
ESTIMATES OF 2024 GIVING WILL BE RECEIVED

THESE ESTIMATES ARE NEEDED TO PREPARE A CHURCH BUDGET FOR 2024

STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN BEGINS BECAUSE OF YOU, OUR CHURCH CHANGES LIVES

We are in the process of developing our church budget for 2024. If you are new to church, or this church, our stewardship Sunday is November 19. We need to ask for estimates of giving for the next year. We try to live within our means, so having an idea of how much income to expect helps us plan accordingly.

WHAT IS A STEWARD? WHO IS A STEWARD? HOW DO I BECOME A STEWARD?

The answers to these questions are easy: A steward is a person who, with regard to a property both physical and functional, keeps it, cares for it, watches over it. As to who is a steward, well, we're hoping YOU are, or that YOU will want to become one. How you become a steward involves the act of you giving to our church of your time, your skills and/or your finances. There is another question to be answered.

IMMEDIATE NEED

Why give to our church? First Congregational Church occupies a unique position in Prescott. We are the only historically rooted and progressive congregation in the city that follows the way of Jesus. We are both open and affirming to all. Our sanctuary evokes historic church connections and the presence of God. The God one finds here is the One Jesus modeled for us – a God of love and grace. Many have given testimony to finding healing here from other church experiences, where God was presented as judgmental and exclusionary. Other churches have retreated to locations out of town. We have remained here on Gurley Street, downtown, easily seen, accessible and welcoming to all.

Another answer to why you would want to give to your church revolves around need, both yours and this Church's. You obviously have any number of personal reasons or needs that lead you into church participation here, where you find those needs met. Your church also has needs and right now those needs are financial. We are in unprecedented times. How do we create a church budget for 2024 with so many unknowns? How do you decide what to give to this church for 2024? These questions have no immediate answers, so our church budget and your offer of financial giving are not set in stone. They are estimates. Your estimate of giving for 2024 will help us begin to understand what might be possible for the next year. So, with a thankful heart full of hope we are asking you to help us right now, to get through our 144th year here in Prescott.

LEGACY ANSWERS THE LONGTERM NEED Our church is blessed to have THE FOUNDATION as a safety net. It was formed in 1992 to manage legacy gifts from our members and friends. Legacy giving is not about death. It's about giving and continuing life. It's an affirming experience that celebrates the people, values, and goals that you cherish most. You don't have to be rich to make a bequest or legacy gift. With a will or legacy gift you can give the way you want to live, by making a better or sustained future for your loved ones and a lasting impact on your faith community. If you are interested in leaving a legacy to our church, or have questions or concerns, you can send a note to the church office and a member of the Foundation will contact you.

IT'S ALL ABOUT STEWARDSHIP - PLEASE BE OUR STEWARD!
